

Resources for People with Disabilities

Alta California Regional Center

<http://www.altaregional.org/>

Alta California Regional Center assists persons with developmental disabilities, including infants at risk and their families who live in their service area.

AT (Assistive Technology) Network

<https://exchange.abilitytools.org/>

The AT Network is a free service of the Ability Tools that connects Californians to the assistive technology (AT) devices they need to live independently.

California Department of Rehabilitation

<http://www.dor.ca.gov/>

The California Department of Rehabilitation works in partnership with consumers and other stakeholders to provide services and advocacy resulting in employment, independent living and equality for individuals with disabilities.

Crossroads Diversified Services

<https://www.cdsdiv.com/>

Crossroads Diversified services helps people with disabilities or other challenges prepare for employment and self-sufficiency.

Disability Benefits Planning 101

<https://ca.db101.org/>

Many people with disabilities fear that if they go to work, they will lose needed health care and other disability benefits. DB101 helps people with disabilities and service providers understand the connections between work and benefits. DB101 will help you make informed choices and show you how you can make work part of your plan.

Easter Seals

<http://www.easterseals.com/>

Easter Seals is a nonprofit charitable organization that assists children and adults with autism and other disabilities and special needs.

Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC)

<http://www.eeoc.gov/>

The EEOC provides support and information regarding equal employment to insure that no one is discriminated against.

Family SOUP

<http://familysoup.org/>

Family SOUP is a family resource center dedicated to supporting, encouraging and providing information and facilitated referral to families with children with special needs. We offer a variety of programs for parents/caregivers and children.

FREED Center for Independent Living

<http://www.freed.org/>

FREED's mission is to eliminate barriers to full equality for people with disabilities through programs which promote independent living and effect systems change, while honoring dignity and self-determination.

InAlliance

<http://inallianceinc.com/>

InAlliance is a nonprofit organization that supports the belief that people with developmental disabilities have an absolute right and responsibility to participate fully and equally in society and to maximize their own quality of life. They are committed to providing services that contribute to the independence of adults with developmental disabilities and acquired brain injury.

Job Accommodations Network (JAN)

<http://www.jan.wvu.edu/>

JAN is a free consulting service designed to increase the employability of people with disabilities by providing individualized worksite accommodations solutions, providing technical assistance regarding the ADA and other disability related legislation, and educating callers about self-employment options.

Network of Care

<http://www.networkofcare.org/splash.aspx?state=california>

Community-based resources and tools for seniors, people with disabilities, caregivers and service providers.

NorCal Services for Deaf & Hard of Hearing

<http://www.norcalcenter.org/>

NorCal Services for Deaf and Hard of Hearing is a non-profit, community-based organization serving deaf and hard of hearing individuals, their families and the general public in 24 northeastern counties of California.

PRIDE Industries

<http://www.prideindustries.com/>

PRIDE Industries delivers first-rate manufacturing and service solutions to businesses and government agencies nationwide, while creating meaningful jobs for people with disabilities.

Tri County Respite Care Service

<https://www.tri-counties.org/what-we-do/respite/>

Tri County Respite Care Service provides respite care for children with developmental disabilities and adults with brain impairment.

U.S. Social Security Administration

<http://www.ssa.gov/>

The United States Social Security Administration is an independent agency of the United States federal government that administers Social Security, a social insurance program consisting of retirement, disability and survivors' benefits.